

Upper Mustang Round Trek

Description

The Upper Mustang Round Trek is a journey through the remote and isolated kingdom of Lo which was an independent Tibetan Kingdom in the Mustang region in Nepal. This trek offers trekkers a unique opportunity to explore the hidden and seldom-visited kingdom of Lo, which has remained largely unchanged for centuries. Upper Mustang is known for its arid desert-like landscape and its cultural significance as a former Tibetan kingdom. The trek takes you through some of the most stunning mountain scenery in the world, including views of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges.

The trek typically lasts around 21 days and is considered to be of moderate to challenging difficulty due to its high altitude. The highest point of the trek is at the Tashi kabum, which reaches an elevation of 4,005 meters. Despite the challenging nature of the trek, it is a rewarding experience for those who are prepared and fit enough to take on the challenge.

Upper Mustang Circuit Trek is located in the rain shadow of the Himalayas, which gives it a unique desert-like landscape. Upper Mustang is known for its ancient Buddhist monasteries, colorful prayer flags, and traditional mud-brick houses that trekkers can explore whilst trekking.

The Upper Mustang region is home to the Lo Manthang, the capital of Upper Mustang and the seat of the former kingdom. Upper Mustang Circuit Trek gives trekkers a chance to experience the Tiji festival, a three-day religious celebration that takes place each year in the town of Lo Manthang. The festival features ancient rituals, traditional music, and dance, and is attended by people from all over the region.

Upper Mustang Round Trek is considered a restricted area and requires a special permit to visit. It is a popular destination for trekkers and adventurers, who come to explore its unique landscape and culture. The region is known for its challenging terrain and high altitude, making it an ideal destination for experienced trekkers.

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01:Arrival in Kathmandu (1,380m)

Welcome to Nepal, on your arrival at TIA our Precious Adventures representative will pick you up at the airport. The representative will transfer you to the hotel where you will stay. After your long and tiring journey to Nepal, you can either relax in your room or perhaps explore the local vicinity and be fascinated by the diverse culture of Nepal. In the evening you are cordially invited for a complimentary dinner where you meet with your trek guide and they will further provide detailed information about the trip. For dinner, you will have staple Nepali food which includes rice, daal, and vegetable along with meat depending on your choice.

Day 02: Sightseeing Kathmandu Boudha and Pashupatinath

Today we drive around Kathmandu for sightseeing and visit two of the UNESCO world heritage sites in Kathmandu. Boudhanath stupa holds a prominent place among Buddhist people. A stupa is a hemispherical shaped structure or mound which is prominent in Buddhism. Though the Boudhanath stupa is bustling with day-to-day activities, the atmosphere around here is rather tranquil. Pashupatinath temple is one of the most sacred and significant Hindu temples in the world. The temple is dedicated to Lord Pashupatinath, who is an incarnation of Lord Shiva. While visiting the temple we can see some Hindu rituals and ceremonies taking place. Indeed both religious places are beacons of diverse religions, cultures, and history. For lunch, we have local delicious cuisine, a hallmark of Nepali traditional food. Overnight in Kathmandu.
